

Danielle M Souza, Member, Ware School Committee

“My intentions during my tenure as a school committee member are to facilitate more parent involvement, offer an enriched and diverse curriculum as well a tight fiscal budget that will set the stage for the coming years. We need to impact the present as well as plan for the future.”

Danielle has been employed at MassMutual for over a year as a tax accountant. Prior to working at MassMutual, Danielle was a finance manager for Patriot Home Improvement. She currently works for a law firm doing real estate closings and as a part-time licensed mortgage broker. In the near future, her passion is to continue her degree in Business Law at Western New England College.

Danielle has been a Girl Scout leader for over 7 years and has facilitated many rewarding community projects. She also serves on numerous boards involving youth sports and is a member of the Open Space and Recreation Committee. In her free time she enjoys playing basketball with the ladies, gardening, and reading a GOOD book!

Danielle and her husband, Chris, with their three children Christopher, ShyAnne and Payton have been lifelong residents of Ware.
